BOARD CHARTER

1.0 INTRODUCTION

The Directors of Pantech Group Holdings Berhad (“PANTECH”) regard Corporate Governance as vitally important to the success of PANTECH’s business and are unreservedly committed to applying the following principles of good governance in all of its business dealings in respect of its shareholders and relevant stakeholders:-

- The Board is the focal point of the Company’s Corporate Governance system. It is ultimately accountable and responsible for the performance and affairs of the Company;
- All Board members are expected to act in a professional manner, thereby upholding the core values of integrity and enterprise with due regard to their fiduciary duties and responsibilities;
- All Board members are responsible to the Company for achieving a high level of good governance;
- In carrying out its responsibilities, the Board undertakes to secure the interests of shareholders as well as the employees, suppliers and customers and the broader community – honestly, diligently, fairly and in accordance with all applicable laws.
- The Board Charter shall continue and form an integral part of each Director’s duties and responsibilities.

This Board Charter is not a total document and should be read as an expression of principle for optimizing corporate performance and accountability. The Board will review and update (if necessary) the Board Charter on an annual basis.

2.0 OBJECTIVES

The objective of this Board Charter is to ensure that all Board members acting on behalf of the Company are aware of their duties and responsibilities as Board members and the various legislations and regulations affecting their conduct and that the principles and practices of good corporate governance are applied in all their dealings in respect and on behalf of the Company.

To work towards its Vision and Mission.

Vision

To be an international leader in the provision of total solutions for fluid transmission system.

Mission

To manufacture, supply and distribute a wide range of pipes, valves and fittings (PVF) to engineering professionals who design, construct and maintain fluid handling systems.

3.0 THE BOARD

3.1 Role of the Board

Guiding Principle

The Board's role is to provide strategic guidance to the Company within a framework of prudent and effective controls which enables risk to be assessed and managed. The Board should set the Company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary financial and human resources are in place for the Company to meet its objectives and review management performance.

The basic responsibility of the Directors is to exercise their business judgment to act in what they reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders.

The Board's responsibilities encompass the following:-

- 3.1.1 Lead and manage the Company in an effective and responsible manner;
- 3.1.2 Establish the corporate vision and mission, as well as the philosophy of the Company, setting the aims of the management and monitoring the performance of the management;
- 3.1.3 Monitor financial outcomes and the integrity of internal and external reporting, in particular approving annual budgets and longer term strategic and business plans;
- 3.1.4 Assess the effectiveness of the Board of Directors as a whole, the Committees of the Board and the contribution of each director;
- 3.1.5 To identify principal risks and to ensure the implementation of appropriate systems to protect the Company's assets and to minimize the possibility of the Company operating beyond acceptable risk parameters;
- 3.1.6 To keep pace with the modern risk of business and other aspects of governance that encourage enhancement of effectiveness in Board and management;
- 3.1.7 To review the adequacy and integrity of the group's internal control systems and management information systems including systems for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives and guidelines;
- 3.1.8 To ensure a sustainable anti-corruption compliance programme and assign adequate resources to implement anti bribery and anti-corruption compliance programme;

- 3.1.9 Succession planning, including appointing, training, fixing the compensation of and where appropriate, replacing Board and the key management;
- 3.1.10 Establish and review annually corporate communication policies with respect to the following:-
- (i) How the corporation interacts with analysts, investors, other key stakeholders and the public.
 - (ii) Measures for the corporation to comply with its continuous and timely disclosure obligations.
- 3.1.11 For each member of the Board of Directors, act as representatives of the corporation in:
- (i) Enhancing the organization's public image, reputation and credibility
 - (ii) Providing contacts or network for the corporation
 - (iii) Being loyal to the corporation
 - (iv) Supporting the decisions of the majority of the Board of Directors and
 - (v) Identifying, evaluating and carrying out profitable business opportunity for the corporation, as well as providing the corporation with information on the market in which it operates.
- 3.1.12 Ensure all new directors receive comprehensive orientation to fully understand the role of the board of directors and its committees, as well as the contribution individual directors are expected to make (including, in particular, the commitment of time that the corporation expects from its directors) and the nature and operation of the corporation's business.
- 3.1.13 In discharging its duties, the Board of Directors may engage the services of outside advisors at the expense of the corporation. The Board also allows, any Board committee or director to engage the services of an outside advisor at the expense of the corporation, to adequately carry out such committee's duties, where the circumstances so warrant, subject to the Board of Director's approval.

3.2 Board Structure

Guiding Principle

The Board should include a balance of executive and NED (and in particular independent NED) such that the balance of skills and experience is appropriate for the requirement of the Company.

- 3.2.1 The Regulations governing the management of PANTECH are found in the Company's Constitution which stipulates among others, the appointment and number of Directors, the election of Chairman of the Board; who will preside at all Board meetings and rotation of directors, etc.

- 3.2.2 Although the Board is made up of a variety of Directors with different roles and responsibilities, there is no distinction in their accountabilities to the company.

3.3 Composition and Board Balance

- 3.3.1 The number of Directors shall not be less than 2 and not more than 12 unless otherwise determined by a general meeting, as stipulated in the Company's Constitution. Currently, PANTECH Board members comprise of 5 Executive Directors, 1 Non-Independent & Non-Executive Director and 3 Independent & Non-Executive Directors.
- 3.3.2 The Board membership should reflect a greater board diversity with an appropriate balance between executives possessing extensive direct experience and expertise in the core business activities of the Company, and non executive members who have outstanding track records and reputations attained at the highest levels of business and commerce generally, and who are able to bring to the Board a broad range of general commercial expertise and experience. The Board is assessed based on their merit but not on gender diversity.
- 3.3.3 The Board is the Company's decision making body. It is therefore imperative that the Board should be sized in a manner most effective to facilitate decision-makings and deliberation processes.
- 3.3.4 A strong and independent element on the Board should be present to exercise independent objective judgment on the corporate affairs of the Company, no individual or small group of individuals is allowed to dominate the Board's decision making process.
- 3.3.5 The Board may appoint a Senior Independent Director to whom shareholders' concern can be conveyed if there are reasons that contact through the normal channels of the Executive Chairman has failed to resolve them.
- 3.3.6 In considering potential new directors, the Board should seek to identify candidates with appropriate skills and experience to contribute to the effective direction of the Company, who can exercise an independent and informed judgment on matters which come before the Board.
- 3.3.7 The Board composition should be reviewed annually by the Board to ensure that the non-executive directors between them bring the range of skills, knowledge and experience necessary to direct the Company going forward.

3.4 Appointment

- 3.4.1 The appointment of a new Director is a matter of consideration and decision by all members of the Board upon appropriate recommendation from the Nominating Committee.

- 3.4.2 The Company Secretary has the responsibility in ensuring that relevant procedures relating to the appointments of new Directors are properly executed.
- 3.4.3 All new directors appointed to the Board should undertake a formal induction programme.
- 3.4.4 In addition to the Mandatory Accredited Programme (MAP) as required by the Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad, Board members are also encouraged to attend training programmes conducted by highly competent professionals which are relevant to the Company's operations and business and also for the Board to update itself in relation to new developments pertaining to the laws and regulations and changing commercial risks which may affect the Board and the Company.
- 3.4.5 The Nominating Committee will assess the training needs of the Directors and disclose in the Annual Report the trainings attended by the Directors.
- 3.4.6 The directorship held by any Board member at any one time shall not exceed five (5) in listed companies.

3.5 Re-election / Re-appointment

- 3.5.1 One-third (1/3) of the Directors are subject to retirement by rotation yearly or at the interval of every three (3) years.
- 3.5.2 There is no age limit for Directors but they must contribute in the Board deliberation objectively and qualify to act unless the Director:-
- i. becomes of unsound mind;
 - ii. becomes bankrupt;
 - iii. is absent from more than 50% of the total board of directors' meetings held during a financial year; or
 - iv. is convicted by a court of law, whether within Malaysia or elsewhere.
- 3.5.3 The tenure of Independent Directors is capped to a cumulative period of 9 years.

3.6 Supply of Information

- 3.6.1 The Company aims to provide all Directors with timely and quality information and in a form and manner appropriate for them to discharge their duties effectively.
- 3.6.2 The management is responsible in providing the Board with the required information in an appropriate and timely manner. The Managing Director, assisted by the Company Secretary, will assess the type of information required to be provided to the Board. If the information provided by the management is insufficient, the Board will make further enquiries where necessary to which the persons responsible will respond as fully and promptly as possible.

- 3.6.3 A full agenda and comprehensive Board papers should be circulated to all Directors well in advance of each meeting.
